

Grievance Redressal Policy

In the present scenario of competitive banking, excellence in customer service is the most important tool for sustained business growth. Customer complaints are part of the business life of any corporate entity. As a service organization, customer service and customer satisfaction is the prime concern of Barclays Bank Plc. This policy document aims at minimizing instances of customer complaints and grievances through proper service delivery and review mechanism. It also aims at ensuring prompt redressal of customer complaints and grievances.

We define a complaint as any expression of dissatisfaction, justified or not, about any aspect of our business. The bank's policy on grievance redressal follows the under noted principles:

- a) Customers be treated fairly at all times
- b) Complaints raised by customers are dealt with courtesy and on time
- c) Customers are fully informed of avenues to escalate their complaints/grievances within the organization and their rights to alternative remedy, if they are not fully satisfied with the response of the bank to their complaints.
- d) Bank will treat all complaints efficiently, transparently and fairly as they can damage the bank's reputation and business if handled otherwise
- e) We operate to an agreed and documented complaints process
- f) The bank employees must work in good faith and without prejudice to the interests of the customer.
- g) The policy document is available at all branches and the Branch Manager/Teller Manager could be contacted for issues pertaining to
- h) the same
- i) We retain information relating to the complaint, which helps us in analyzing the causes for the same. Addressing these causes will help us in reduction of the complaint numbers & providing a better service experience.

1 Customer Complaints – Level 1

Resolution of Grievances

The customer complaint arises due to;

- The attitudinal aspects in dealing with customers
- Inadequacy of the functions/arrangements made available to the customers or gaps in standards of services expected and actual services rendered.

The customer has the right to register his complaint if he is not satisfied with the services provided by the bank. He can give his complaint in writing, orally or over telephone. All complaints received are recognized and recorded through all delivery channels, including branch networks, telephony channels and email. Bank has a system of acknowledging the complaints, where the complaints are received through letters or via email. If the complaint is not resolved within the given time (not later than one month) or if he is not satisfied with the solution provided by the bank, the complainant can approach Banking Ombudsman with the complaint or other legal avenues available for grievance redressal. The interests of Senior Citizens and People with Special needs are covered under the purview of this policy

The various channels available to customers for redressal of issues are as follows:

6. Interaction with customers

The bank recognizes that expectation/requirement/grievances can be appreciated through personal interaction with customer bank's staff. We conduct monthly meeting of Branch customer service committee to gauge feedback/s for improvement in customer service and awareness of bank's products & services among. The important points of the minutes of these meetings conducted branches are placed before the Standing Committee of Customer Service.

7. Internal Machinery to handle Customer Complaints/ Grievances

7.1 Standing Committee on Customer Service

The Standing Committee on Customer Service chaired by the Managing Director & comprising the Heads of Business, Operations, Compliance, Legal, Service & service governance and members from the public, will convene at least once in three months. The committee would broadly cover the following functions:

- Evaluating feedback on quality of customer services received from various quarters
- Monitoring the quality of customer services rendered by the bank (MIS)
- Ensuring compliance of all regulatory requirements regarding customer services under the BCSBI's Code of Commitment to Bank's customers.
- Implementing commitments in the Bank's "code of commitment" and other regulatory instructions concerning customer service.
- Reporting its performance to the Local Governance committee / Customer service committee of the board.
- Reviewing customer complaints and emerging trends
- Analyzing audits and surveys to gauge customer satisfaction
- Addressing issues/suggestions emanating from Branch level customer service committees.
- Addressing any other issue having a bearing on the quality of the customer service rendered or any other issues as may be stipulated by RBI from time to time.

7.2 Customer Service Committee of the Board

Reviews the customer service / customer care aspects in the bank and any other issue having a bearing on the quality of the customer service rendered or any other issues as may be stipulated by RBI and Banking Codes and Standards Board of India from time to time.

8. Sensitizing operating staff on handling complaints

We have a robust system of training all staff in customer contact areas in handling complaints effectively. All staff who have contact with customers or their complaints are trained and have passed their business area complaint handling accreditation test before having unsupervised customer contact. Training pertaining to customer complaints and treating customers fairly are part of the induction training that happens at the bank.

9. Resolution of Grievances

The customers can highlight their complaints / issues with our Bank via the channels mentioned earlier in the policy. The officer in the concerned unit with whom the customer has raised the issue is responsible for the resolution of complaints/grievances.

The Branch Managers can also be contacted by the customers for lodging their complaints. The officers of the complaints redressal unit will ensure closure of all complaints to the customers' satisfaction. They will ensure that the complaint is escalated to the appropriate levels in case it is not possible to resolve at his/her level. Whilst the ultimate endeavor is to ensure we reach a situation where our customers don't have to complain to senior management to get an effective redressal, we have put in a robust mechanism to handle these complaints, review them from a point of view of understanding reasons for the complaint and for the escalation and working on prevention of recurrence thereof.

10. Mandatory display requirements We provide;

Appropriate arrangement for receiving complaints and suggestions.

- The name, address and contact number of Nodal Officer(s).
- Contact details of Banking Ombudsman of the area
